Business Professionals of America

State Officer Candidate Orientation

President
Vice President
Secretary
Treasurer
Parliamentarian
Historian

State Officer Candidates must:

- Attend all four (4) BPA Business Meetings
- Wear the State Officer Candidate ribbon on name badge at all times
- Wear professional dress at all times during the conference (except the dance)
- Give speeches during the 2nd Business Meeting

Campaign speeches will be given during the 2nd Business Meeting. Speeches are not to exceed three minutes. The president will keep time: a one-minute warning will be called out. This includes a nomination speech, if you have a nominator. The use of skits, props, and costumes, demonstrations, or assistance is prohibited. If this takes place the speaker will be stopped due to violation of National rules. Candidates are running to be a member of the State Officer Team, not a specific office. No candidate should refer to a preference of office to hold at any time.

Candidates will also be required to draw for two questions: one leadership and one personal.

State Officer Candidate leadership questions:

- What are the BPA colors and what do they represent?
- What are the 4 points of the shield? Please recite the pledge.
- What are the 4 levels of Torch Awards and how many points are required at each level?
- What are the seven divisions for Torch Awards?

Voting will be conducted during the 3rd Business Meeting and the results will be announced at the Awards Ceremony. To be elected, candidates must receive a majority vote.

What is Business Professionals of America

Business Professionals of America is a national student organization composed of state associations and local chapters serving persons pursuing careers in business and office occupations as well as former members. This organization provides the opportunity for the development of leadership skills, personal and professional growth, and career related competencies. Involvement in Business Professionals of America will enhance social awareness, civic responsibility, and understanding of the business community.

Mission Statement

The mission of Business Professionals of America is to contribute to the preparations of a world-class workforce through the advancement of leadership, citizenship, academic, and technological skills.

Vision Statements

- Business Professionals of America will be a cohesive agent in the worldwide networking of education, business and industry.

- To understand and promote business

* as listed in the Chapter Management Reference

Membership Eligibility

Business Professionals of America is composed of students in middle school, secondary, and post-secondary programs or courses in business and/or office educations.

The divisions of the organization are:

- Middle School – for middle school students enrolled in business and/or office education programs
- Secondary – for high school students enrolled in business and/or office education programs
- Post-Secondary – for post-secondary (one-year, two-year, baccalaureate, or post-baccalaureate) students enrolled in courses and/or programs preparing for business, office, and business education careers
- Associate – for students enrolled in a business and/or office education program for special populations
- Alumni – for former active members of any student division

Establishing a Chapter

Time spent in developing a Business Professionals of America chapter will be time well spent. The rewards are immense for the individual students, the teacher, the school, and the community.

A step-by-step procedure in establishing a chapter might be the following:

- Make a time commitment for meetings and activities.
- Get school administrative approval (wherever necessary).
- Find a “nucleus” of interested student to form a research/organizational committee.
- Contact the state advisor for information about state and national membership, dues, and conferences.
- Present the idea of Business Professionals of America to the students.
- Prepare a chapter constitution.
- Hold a membership recruitment drive; collect dues and send membership application with state and national dues.
- Hold nominations campaigning, and election of officers.
- Establish a program of work for the year. Include professional, civic and service, social, and fund-raising activities; involvement in national programs; and attendance at state and national leadership conferences. Be sure regular chapter meeting times are established.
- Maintain contact with the state advisor in order to keep abreast of state and national activities.
- Evaluate chapter progress and effectiveness periodically.

Business Professionals of America Pledge

We are met in a spirit of friendship and goodwill as we prepare for productive lives in a world-class workforce. We work together to develop professionalism and leadership through Business Professionals of America and pledge our loyalty to our nation.

The Emblem

The purposes of Business Professionals of America are symbolized by the emblem and its meaning:

- The four points of the shield stand for ambition, leadership, sociability, and poise.
- The shield itself stands for honor and dignity and the importance of business in America.
- The stripes represent the essential characteristics of very successful worker-education, citizenship, loyalty, patriotism, dependability, and competency.
- The bar represents the service provided by those employed in business occupations.

Program of Activities

A program of activities is an outline of activities covering a definite period which includes goals, ways and means of reaching them, and adequate provisions for checking on accomplishments. A well-planned, carefully-worded, written program is essential to successful chapter operation. It is the basis for greater individual member participation in chapter activities, and it provides a record of chapter accomplishments.

Possible outlines for a program of activities could be based on one of the following three formats:

- Torch Awards Program using the seven torch division (leadership, service, cooperation, knowledge, friendship, love-faith-hope, and patriotism).
- Conventional groupings such as professional, financial, civic, service, and social .
- Special Recognition Program outline using major activity categories such as leadership training, participation in ceremonies, attendance at conferences, participation in recognition programs, and holding local chapter meetings.

The program of activities should:

- be in outline form
- include all chapter's activities
- have balanced activities
- be reasonable, challenging, and worthwhile to accomplish
- provide for ways and means to accomplish the goals
- provide integration with the classroom whenever possible
- provide for maximum participation by members
