Civic Project

Don't forget about our Adopt-A-Family Civics project. The flier can be found on our Conference Website at www.ctsoalaska.org. We encourage you to participate in however your community can best be served and however your CTSO chapter can help out in your local community.

CTSO Instagram

Don't forget that CTSO has an instagram account and we are looking for you to help us by providing photos of your year's activities so that we can use some of your photos in our opening and closing ceremonies. Just use the hastag #ctsoalaska.

Matsu College Scholarship

The 2015 Mat-Su Scholarship is also posted on the CTSO Website. Please have your interested students begin working on completed the required items. Final deadline for applications is March 19, 2015 at noon.

Closing Speaker and Money War

This year the Closing Committee has Chosen Dee Dee Jonrow as our speaker during our Closing Ceremony. We are looking forward to hearing from an Alaskan with a proud and adventurous history.

We will also be presenting a check to the Alaska Youth Court with the proceeds from the Money War during our 2015 CTSO PBAC Conference. Please be sure to save your coins and bills for a friendly round of competition for the benefit of others.

Money Wars

Bring some change to make a change to help navigate a teen's future!

Youth Court

This year's proceeds will be contributed to Youth court. Youth Court is a nonprofit organization that strives to nurture in youth a respect for the rule of law, help develop positive citizenship attitudes, encourage civic engagement, and promote educational success.
